● Gifts You may consider

There are several ways you can leave a gift:

- A fixed sum – a specific amount of money.
- A percentage share of your estate (residual gift) – what remains after family and loved ones have been looked after and any debts paid.
- Shares or investments – which we can put to work supporting our services.
- A valuable item – such as jewellery, art, or other belongings, which we can sell to raise vital funds.

● Making or changing your Will

You don't need to tell us if you have chosen to leave a gift in your Will, it's very personal, but if you would like to, then it gives us the opportunity to say thank you and keep you up to date with our work.

You may also want to discuss your decision with family so they know your wishes.
